There once was a boy that lived in a small neighborhood in California.

The boy was named Felix, and was 8 years old.

Felix lived in a small house with his grandmother and little sister, Makei.

Everyday Felix did everything he could to help out his grandma with the woodshop.

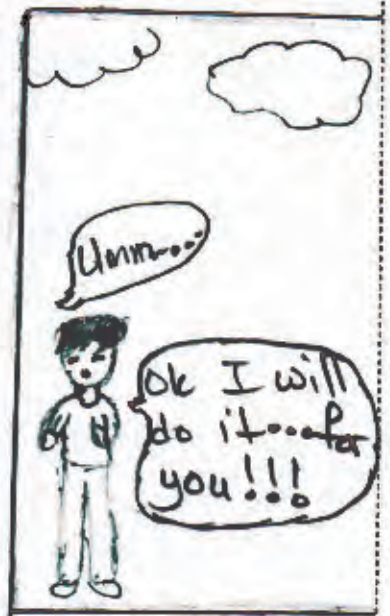

Life was perfect until, one day...

... In spring a mysterious disaster struck.
Out of no where a sudden sandstorm came.
It had filled the entire place with sand.

All the neighbors
were really worried and scared.

Felix was ready yet nervous on the way through.

He went through deserts and painful cactuses...
